A. New Home Construction

Well and septic system permits issued by the BEDHD are required to accompany a Zoning Permit. If VACANT LAND, and a SITE EVALUATION has not been performed, the process requires two steps:

2. Site Evaluation [“perk test”] is performed by a BEDHD Sanitarian. The fee is $200. If the perk test is positive, a Township Zoning Compliance Permit can be requested. If the test is negative, stop because a Zoning Permit cannot be issued for the new construction. If test is positive, then,
3. Well Evaluation and Waste Water Disposal System Permit. These permits are issued by the BEDHD. The Well Permit fee is $160 and the Wastewater System Permit fee is $180. (Fees are subject to change).

BEDHD address: 330 W. Woodlawn, Hastings, MI 49058.

BEDHD Telephone: 269-945-9516 (Environmental Health)

B. New accessory building or addition to existing structures on property

Any new detached accessory building or addition to an existing building requires review by the BEDHD as to the location of the existing septic tank/drain field and the replacement area.
